Research Center Workshops
Each quarter our reference librarians offer a number of instructional workshops that cover a variety of useful topics and resources. This quarter, workshops include:

- Library 101
- Three Googles
- Turabian Citations
- Grant Management

For a full list of workshops and registration details, visit libguides.du.edu/workshops

Periodic Table Anniversary
On January 16 from 12-1 p.m., University Libraries and the Office of the Provost will host Dr. Eric Scerri to talk about the anniversary of one of the most important scientific contributions.

2019 is the 150th anniversary of the periodic table of chemical elements, one of the most significant achievements in science. To celebrate this milestone year, we welcome Dr. Eric Scerri to the University of Denver. Dr. Scerri is a chemist, author, and leading historian and philosopher of science, specializing in the periodic table of chemical elements. He is the author of The Periodic Table, Its Story and Its Significance. Pizza will be served.

For details about these events and registration, please visit https://bit.ly/2CKs9WD

Research Center Workshops
Each quarter our reference librarians offer a number of instructional workshops that cover a variety of useful topics and resources. This quarter, workshops include:

- Library 101
- Three Googles
- Turabian Citations
- Grant Management

For a full list of workshops and registration details, visit libguides.du.edu/workshops

Writing Center
English for Academic Purposes Writing Workshops
Most Tuesdays at 6 p.m. and Fridays at 12 p.m. in AAC 284
Join us to learn or review concepts and strategies for writing in edited academic English. Bring any piece of writing you’re working on to these interactive sessions.
For more information, go to du.mywconline.com, click on “Workshops & Events,” and look for WRIT EAP.

Writing Fridays (#WriFri)
Most Fridays from 1-3 p.m. in AAC 340
Do you like to write? Need to write? Want to write? Bring an academic or creative project you’re working on, or just bring yourself and jump into writing activities on your own or with a group. We’ll have snacks, prompts, writing activities, and people to write with. For more information, please contact the Writing Center at wrc@du.edu.

Lose Something?
Did you misplace your phone, wallet, keys, or something else at AAC? The library has a Lost and Found at the Lending Desk.

Diversity Summit
Save the date for the annual Diversity Summit, Feb. 11 to 15. More details will be announced.

Study Carrels
Looking for a dedicated quiet space to work on your thesis or dissertation? Apply for a research carrel in the library! For more information, visit libguides.du.edu/carrels

Sustainable AAC
Did you know that University Libraries has been working hard to reduce our waste and increase our diversion to composting and recycling? Quarterly waste audits show that over the past year our diversion rate has increased up to 69%! We could use your help to keep our diversion rate on the upward track.

Here are some simple things you can do to help us:
- Remember that paper towels are compostable.
- Plastic cups are recyclable.
- Straws from outside vendors (not Sodexo) are landfill.

Thanks for supporting sustainability at the AAC!

For questions or story suggestions, email the editor, Elia Trucks elia.trucks@du.edu

Contact Us

Contact Us
For questions or story suggestions, email the editor, Elia Trucks elia.trucks@du.edu

Library.

@ducommons
@ducommons