Diversity Summit
The 18th annual Diversity Summit will harness the connective potential of our experiences, personal realities, and learnings, forging a path forward through concerted, meaningful, and combined efforts. Programming spans the full week of February 11 - 15. Learn more here: https://www.du.edu/about/diversity/building-community/diversity-summit

Eating Animals Screening and Panel
Where do our eggs, dairy products, and meat come from and at what cost? Join the Center for Sustainability and University Libraries on February 26 at 4 p.m. in AAC 290 for Eating Animals, a documentary that examines this question, followed by a panel discussion with the DU community. Through the intimate narratives of several farmers dedicated to bringing their trade – and the way we eat – back to its roots, the film explores how we might step away from the practices of the past 40 years that have polluted our environment, endangered our health, and caused us all to be complicit in the inhumane treatment of animals. Dinner will be served. RSVP at https://bit.ly/2CKs9WD

OTL Workshops
The Office of Teaching and Learning is offering workshops this quarter to support faculty and instructors. Workshops will be held in the OTL Conference Room unless otherwise noted.

Advanced Canvas: Assignments & Grading Strategies
February 21 at 2 PM
February 22 at 9 AM - Webinar
March 28 at 1 PM - Webinar

Testing in Canvas with Respondus LockDown Browser
February 28 at 10 AM
March 4 at 2 PM

Canvas Basics
March 25 at 2 PM - Webinar
March 26 at 10 AM

Her DU
Join HerDU 2019 on March 8 for a day of courageous conversations, inspiration, interactive experiences, connections, and learning. For more information, visit: https://www.du.edu/duwomen/conference/

Language Learning
What new languages do you want to learn this year? The Library offers online resources like Rosetta Stone, Mango Languages, Transparent Language Online, and Pimsleur. All are free to use for the DU Community. For details, visit https://libguides.du.edu/languagelearning

Money Smart Week
Want to know more about how to make a budget, what the student loan process looks like, or how to negotiate a salary? Money Smart Week at DU is April 15 - 18. Learn more about the call for proposals and the schedule of events at libguides.du.edu/msw2019

Lib Tip: Looking for a special someone for Valentine’s Day? Check out our “Blind Date” books at the front of AAC.