Changing Hours
Anderson Academic Commons will be open 24 hours a day during finals week. AAC will open on Saturday, March 16 at 10 a.m. and will remain open until Friday, March 22 at 10 p.m. We are open during spring break with regular operating hours. Visit library.du.edu/hours.html for a full schedule.

Zero Waste Finals
Zero Waste Finals at the AAC are Monday, March 13 through Friday, March 22. and we’re aiming to achieve a high diversion rate! What does that mean? It means that the library is hoping to divert as much as possible of the building’s compostable and recyclable waste from the landfill. Will you help us achieve our goal? Check it out in the front of AAC for games and prizes.

Midnight Coffee
Staying up late to cram for finals? Get a cup of drip coffee for free at the Front Porch Cafe from 8 p.m. until midnight on Monday, March 18 and Tuesday, March 19.

Stress Relief
Don’t stress about finals week! Join the Health and Counseling Center and University Libraries for a fun and therapeutic day on Wednesday, March 13 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m in AAC 290. Snacks, coloring books, massage therapists, therapy dogs, and a pop-up clinic will be here to help you chill.

Theremin Thursday
The Theremin is an electronic instrument that you can play without touching anything. The Music Library will be hosting their weekly Theremin Thursday in AAC 212 on March 14 from 3-5 p.m. Take a study break and play with this magical instrument. Theremin Thursdays are a regular event at the music library if you want to see more. Check out our blog for videos of the Theremin’s music: dulibraries.wordpress.com

Research Help with Librarians
Don’t let your final research projects sneak up on you! Make an appointment with a research librarian today for helping finding sources, using library databases, and more! Visit http://libraryhelp.du.edu to get started.
